

Philippine Studies Group

A Committee of the Southeast Asia Council

Association for Asian Studies

<http://philippinestudiesgroup.wordpress.com>

The 2021 Grant Goodman Prize in Philippine History and Historical Studies

Caroline Sy Hau

The Philippine Studies Group of the Association for Asian Studies is pleased to award the Grant Goodman Prize in History and Historical Studies for 2021 to Caroline Sy Hau for her substantial contributions to Philippine historical studies. Hau is Professor of English and Literature at the Center for Southeast Asian Studies, Kyoto University, Japan.

The University of the Philippines Valedictorian earned her subsequent graduate degrees at Cornell University. Since receiving her doctorate in 1998, Professor Hau has been a leader in Philippine historical and literary studies with numerous books, edited books and journal special issues. She has also published 37 peer reviewed book chapters and journal articles. During her career she has received many accolades including the Philippine National Book Award (seven times), the Gintong Aklat Award and the Philippine Free Press Literary Award (twice).

The body of her work has greatly enhanced Philippine literary studies and has added new dimensions to the study of the nation's history in terms of the nation's gender relationships, Chinese ethnicity, politics and political development.

The Philippine Studies Group is pleased to acknowledge the outstanding scholarly achievement that Professor Caroline Hau has shown throughout her career and confer upon her the 2021 Grant Goodman Prize in Philippine History and Historical Studies.

Paul A. Rodell
Chair, Grant Goodman Committee
Philippine Studies Group